

Class: Emma Smith

RESPECT

PERSEVERANCE

EXCELLENCE

This year, our class themes are...

Autumn – Celebrations

Spring – Life Cycles of plants and animals

Summer – Solar systems, land & sea

Plus stand alone themes include: Diwali, Families, Internet Safety, Anti Bullying, Mental Health week, Environment Day, World Ocean Day

Our focusses for Maths, English and Science are...:

Autumn – Sentences, speaking and listening/ Electricity, numbers and time

Spring – Forms and personal information/ Living things and habitats/ shape space and measure

Summer – Fiction and Non-fiction/ Scientific enquiry/ evolution and inheritance/ money, information and data

In our foundation subjects, we will cover...:

Internet safety, Our local area, land and sea, the solar system, our bodies and managing our feelings, artists and their work

Our Preparation for Adulthood includes...:

Food Technology – covering basic cooking skills

Problem solving – group games and teamwork

Field work – map skills, giving and following directions

Out and About – safety, people who help us, ordering, money totals and change

Some exciting activities we will do include...:

Flamingoland, Castle Howard at Christmas, local cafes and businesses, the theater and the seaside

