Welburn Hall Fashion Show

Our thanks go out to everyone involved in last week's fashion show; with over 100 attendees, it really was a fantastic evening. Both staff and students did an amazing modelling job and lots of lovely purchases were made! A special mention must go to Helen Ward-Jackson, who did much of the organisation.

The event raised a grand total of £666.50 to go towards Upper Formal trips and activities. We enjoyed it so much that we're thinking of doing it again in the Spring – look out for details.

We also want to extend our gratitude to these local companies for donating to our raffle: Hunters of Helmsley, Jackie Pickering, Marshall Slingsby Advanced Composites and Helmsley Book Shop.

Christmas came early this year for Mr Western's class who were lucky enough to visit Neverland at Castle Howard.

The class saw some beautifully, magical displays, no children were lost and they escaped the crocodile!

Mr Kaufman's class did the Cola super fountain experiment.

They asked themselves:

How fast?

How high?

How big?

How much fun?!

Last Sunday, Jack from Upper Formal, took part in his first Remembrance Day Parade, representing the Malton and Norton Junior Air Cadets.

The event drew a large, supportive crowd, to watch members for the Police Force, Army, RAF, Malton Mayor and other local groups place their poppy wreath at the Cenotaph.

This was followed by prayers, hymn singing and finished off with a march down Yorkersgate.

Lower Formal wrote some Remembrance Day cards to thank those who have given their lives in conflicts through the years.

The class visited Kirkdale Church and placed the cards there.

College Arts and Crafts

College students have been busy making Christmas cards and decorations to sell at Beadlam Grange Christmas fair.

This work counts towards their Open Awards qualifications.

Lower Formal have been doing history lessons and enjoyed learning all about the Romans.

This learning was extended to their Expressive Arts sessions where the class designed and created their own wooden Roman shields and swords.

They came, they saw, they conquered....

Children in Need - The Great SPOTacular!

Thank you for the donations we have received. So far, we have raised £73 to help raise funds for Children in Need.

If you still wish to donate, please click here to make the suggested donation of £1.
